From Pastor Hecox

My fellow Our Saviorians,

Sorry, I got caught up in the language of recent events, haha. It is nice to greet you again as our summer adventures start to wrap up.

I write to you from the cozy confines of a basement in which I've confined myself. A positive covid test has required me to isolate for a few days, and will do the same to some other members of our ELCA Youth Gathering contingent. The trip went great, even if the (mild) sickness in the aftermath is not so fun.

As you may be aware, these two months are back-to-back 31 day months, and are so arranged because they're named after two esteemed Roman emperors: Julius Caesar (July) and Augustus Caesar (August). But august is a word in its own right: it means "respected and impressive" according to the respected and impressive Oxford English Dictionary (which no self-respecting grammarian should ever be without in study or in intellectual pursuit, my dear fellow).

Our Youth Gathering in New Orleans was an exciting and memorable experience for all. You could even say it was a rather august event: respected for its ability to draw people together from all over the country and unify them in a single purpose, and impressive for the sheer scope of planning and logistical work needed to pull off the whole thing.

Singing with 16,000 other human beings has a particular effect on the mind, body, and soul. I'd experienced this before, at youth events when I myself was in high school, and then later as an adult at a U2 concert (approximately 8 zillion people all singing "But I still haven't found what I'm looking for" together gave me goosebumps).

Now while the experience at our mass gatherings in New Orleans was impressive, it hopefully directed each of our hearts to something beyond what we could hear and feel and touch (and smell, wowzers! Youth and deodorant are a necessary combination in large group settings). Our hearts and minds were directed toward the obvious reality that God is at work all over the place. "Aslan is on the move" as CS Lewis wrote. We heard about the work of the Holy Spirit from New Orleans to Palestine to Puerto Rico.

Indeed, God is at work in communities all over the world, including here in Sun Prairie. The Holy Spirit is burning like a red hot wind (haven't you We, comforting us in our sorrows, and opening our eyes to the beauty and truth of Jesus Christ once again.

As we prepare for VBS and Corn Fest Parade and the Blacktop Party and our Transition Team's church-wide conversations, we ought to pause and acknowledge the good work going on all around us. Recognize the good work going on inside each of us. And focus our eyes yet again on the august beauty of our Creator and the work to which we are collectively called.

Pastor Seth

Worship & Music

August Is Here and Fall Is Approaching

Way back in the middle of June, my mother would start saying: "The days are getting shorter now. Going towards Fall." Here we are in August and, not only are the days getting shorter, but we will receive advertising about back to school sales and other reminders about the new season soon to approach.

At Our Savior's, it is time to start thinking about "Back to Choir." Yes, we have had Summer Singers, Summer Ringers, and a number of soloists and small groups provide special music and we thank them heartily for their contributions to our worship.

Now, however, is the time to think about the coming season. Our choirs and ringers will begin their regular rehearsals in September. Exact dates, times, and rehearsal locations will be announced in the September newsletter. All of our music ensembles would welcome new members! Consider joining a group and/or having a child join a group and contributing to our worship!

Thanks,
John Krueger

Save the Date: Classic Brass Sunday, September 29th at 1:00 Our Savior's Lutheran Church

Hi Everyone,

I'm excited to tell you about the upcoming Benefit Concert for Dysphonia International (formerly known as the National Spasmodic Dysphonia Association) on September 29th.

Classic Brass, from Rochester, Minnesota, will be returning to Our Savior's for the sixth time to perform a wonderful variety of music while also raising awareness of spasmodic dysphonia and other voice disorders. My brother Warren, who has spasmodic dysphonia, (a neurological condition that affects the voice) will be here playing trumpet in Classic Brass, a quintet he started over 30 years ago!

We'll have several special musical guests joining us as well! The concert will be in the OSLC Sanctuary. So, stay tuned for more details! Spread the word! Please join us!

Thanks for your support!
Diane Padrutt

Staffing Update

OSLC Staff Welcomes Bekah Morano

For anyone who has not met me yet, my name is Rebekah Morano. My husband, Josh, and I moved to Madison in August 2022 for me to begin my current role as the music therapist for Oakwood Village retirement communities. We became members of Our Savior's in April 2023 and were looking forward to getting involved in its many ministries. We are passionate about sharing our musical gifts to glorify God, and after becoming involved in the praise band over the past year and a half, I am excited to begin my new role as the director of the praise band at the 10:30 service each week.

I am grateful for this opportunity to serve God and the church, and I ask that you pray for me to best lead this group in God's glory. Thank you for welcoming Josh and I into Our Savior's and making it a wonderful church home for us.

New Volunteer Coordinator

Nicole Crittenden recently joined the OSLC staff as Volunteer Coordinator and began her duties on July 22. Many of you are already seeing emails from Nicole about volunteer scheduling. We are looking forward to working with Nicole and will include an article and photo in next month's newsletter. Welcome to the OSLC staff Nicole!

A Call to Justice and Mercy (JAM)

What does God require of you but to do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8

The JAM group has been leading classes on Systemic Racism. So far we have concentrated on the injustices slavery caused and the legacy of that injustice. While preparing for classes to start this fall we considered other people who have been affected by systemic racism and discovered there is a pattern to our country's behaviors. Thus, the theme of this year will be Patterns of Injustice. The first semester we will look at Indigenous, Chinese, Japanese and Latinx peoples. As part of the Latinx study we will look at the tough subject of immigration. The second semester we will concentrate on the prison system in the United States. This year we will have speakers come in to help us understand the subjects from a different perspective.

Please consider joining us. The classes will start September 15th and continue through November. Please sign up at our table in the Narthex and join our Facebook page, JAM@Our Savior's.

From the JAM Team: Sue Lux, Linda Frautschy, Diane Padrutt, Peggy Schaub, and Judy Singletary

It's Sunshine Supper Time!

The next Sunshine Supper will be on Monday, August 19th. We're going to be feeding taco salad to approximately 400 people. If you can find it in your hearts to help us out with a financial donation, it would be very much appreciated. You can include a check with your offering, mail one to the church, or drop it off in the mailbox outside. Just make sure you put "Sunshine Supper" in the memo line.

We're also looking for 17 volunteers to prepare and help serve the meal from 4:30 to 5:30 pm. If you would like to help, please email Tom Schlinder at: schlinder1959@gmail.com or call (608) 630-0076.

Tom Schlinder and Steve Olson will be coordinating the August event. Thank you so much for your support!!

Church in Society

“God’s work. Our hands.” is Sept. 8, 2024!

God’s work. Our hands.

Join us for a day of service!

This day is an opportunity to celebrate who we are as the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America — one church, freed in Christ to serve and love our neighbor.

Service activities offer an opportunity for us to explore one of our most basic convictions as Lutherans: that all of life in Jesus Christ – every act of service, in every daily calling, in every corner of life — flows freely from a living, daring confidence in God’s grace.

We plan to recognize all the opportunities throughout the year when OSLC has demonstrated our belief in loving and serving our neighbor. We hope to have a few other service projects to offer Sunday, September 8 as well.

This year, we will combine God’s Work. Our Hands with the Blacktop Party for our neighbors surrounding the parking lot on Saturday, September 7. Watch for sign-up sheets to help on Saturday, September 7 as well as Sunday, September 8.

If you know of a particular service project that you would be interested in assisting or leading, please inform the Church Office soon! Thank you for all you do to help our neighbors, near and far!

Peggy Schaub, Church & Society

CHURCH AND SOCIETY BOARD NEEDS YOU!!

If you have an interest in assisting others in our community, or world, please consider being a part of the OSLC Church and Society Board. We currently have no board members to assist with upcoming plans. Contact Peggy Schaub or call the church office.

NOTE: Porch Light is no longer accepting items of clothing at this time.

Please place your donations for Porch Light in the white wicker basket or the red and white container in the Narthex. Thank you to the OSLC congregation for all your donations throughout the year!

Sunshine Food Pantry Assistance

You’re invited to bring in these especially needed items for the Food Pantry:

Dr. Jacqueline Bussie to speak at Bethel Lutheran, Madison!

You are invited to hear Dr. Jacqueline Bussie Wednesday, August 14th at 7:00pm at Bethel Lutheran Church, 312 Wisconsin Ave. Madison. She is an award-winning author, professor, public theologian, and student of life in all its messy beauty. Her first book, The Laughter of the Oppressed won the national Trinity Prize.
